Welcome

Congratulations on your recent engagement. At Ludlow Racecourse we are here to make your day memorable.

The Racecourse

Ludlow Racecourse – one of the few privately owned and arguably one of the friendliest racecourses in the country. Racing has been recorded here since 1725 but according to local legend, in the fourteenth century soldiers from Ludlow Castle came here to match their horses. The course retains its Edwardian character and also its strong club atmosphere. Now a National Hunt Course, jumping started in the mid-nineteenth century and we now have at least 16 fixtures per year.

Situated in the beautiful Shropshire countryside with views of the Clee Hill and beyond, Ludlow Racecourse is a beautiful backdrop for any special occasion.

There are several stunning suites at Ludlow Racecourse for you to choose from, from a marquee on our grounds, to two beautiful venues for your wedding reception.
